PREFACE.

IN 1896 the late Mr W. P. W. Phillimore initiated a scheme for printing all the Marriage Registers in England, under County Series, and over twelve hundred parishes, in nearly thirty counties, have already been issued. It may be asked, Why print the Marriages only? The answer is that the Marriages are so much less numerous than the Baptisms and Burials that it is possible by this system to print all the parishes of a county within comparatively few years, certainly within most subscribers' lifetimes, while with the support ordinarily accorded to this class of work, it would not be possible to print all the registers of a county of average size (say 300 ancient parishes) in less than one hundred years. Again, the Marriage entries are by far the most important part of every register—Marriages being the most numerous of the missing links in pedigrees, while at the same time they are the most difficult to discover, owing to the uncertainty of their whereabouts—if anything at all is known of a family it is usually known where to look for most of its Baptisms and Burials—but this does not apply to its matrimonial alliances. In those counties where the Marriage entries of a large co-terminous area have thus been made accessible, as in the neighbouring county of Nottingham, over two-thirds of which are now printed, these volumes have proved to be the key to the genealogy of nearly all the families in that district. It is easy to get the Baptisms and Burials when once all the Marriages and the places of their registration have been found. Further, this system allows the most essential part of the registers of large towns to be made quickly available to the genealogist and student, where the task of printing the entire register in full would be too costly and the labour too great for a voluntary transcriber to undertake the copying. Thus all the parishes in county towns like Nottingham and Derby have been printed in this Marriage Register Series, besides many of the larger market towns, and now a start is made in Yorkshire with the important town of Rotherham, the bulky registers of which would probably have had to wait until all students now alive had long ceased to need them, had they waited until the money and labour could have been found for printing them in their entirety down to 1837.

The present volume contains the Marriages in the first seven volumes of the manuscript Registers and covers the period 1540-1798. A further volume will be issued in a few months bringing the work down to the end of June 1837, after which Civil Registration became compulsory and the information exists in duplicate and therefore with small risk of irrevocable loss by fire or other accident. This second volume will contain a complete index to both. It is hoped that these volumes will be followed rapidly by others, so that a large proportion of the parishes in Yorkshire's West Riding will be safely printed and made readily accessible. The way will then be open for commencing the other Ridings, several parishes in which are already transcribed.

It only remains to put on record the gratitude of the Subscribers and the General Editor to two men, the Rev. Canon Goodall and the Rev. C. S. James, without whom this work would have been impossible. Canon Goodall not only readily gave his consent to the work being undertaken and printed, but has afforded every facility for its accomplishment and has assisted throughout in correcting the proofs of the present volume, while the manuscript for the later one has been all transcribed by his own hand. The Rev. C. S. James has been most indefatigable and painstaking in making the abstracts for the present volume and has tackled patiently and perseveringly the tiresome task of thoroughly collating the various authorities—the paper and parchment 'Codices' of the original and the reprint by Guest of the earlier years, and the variant readings of the Banns Books in the later period—which have been necessary to insure that accuracy and completeness which is so essential for the student. In this work he has been much assisted by Mr. G. H. Millward, to whom also thanks should be recorded.

INTRODUCTION.

PARISH Registers were first ordered to be kept by Thomas Cromwell, Henry VIIIth's 'Vicar General,' 29th September 1538. Comparatively few are now extant going back to this date and Rotherham is fortunate in possessing Registers beginning as early as 1540, much earlier than the majority of West Riding parishes. By an order of 25th October 1597 it was directed that these Registers, for the most part written on paper, should be transcribed on to parchment, and again Rotherham is fortunate in that, like Sutton-in-Ashfield and Rolleston in Notts, a large portion of the original paper register has been preserved along with the parchment transcript. Not one per cent. of English parishes possess this distinction. Wherever the paper original does exist it is interesting as showing that the transcriber of 1598 seldom copied it exactly; not only does the spelling of names vary largely, as one would expect (spelling not having been co-ordinated) but frequently statements of fact or notes of interest were omitted by the copyist whose work was, strictly speaking, rather an abstract than a transcript of the old paper register.

In September 1653 the Commonwealth Parliament ordered 'Parish Registers' to be elected by the householders of each parish to keep the Registers. In some cases the clergy were elected to this office, so that no change occurs in the handwriting of the entries, but more frequently the village schoolmaster, and sometimes even a lettered 'labourer' was appointed. For the most part these men did their work well and the Registers from 1653 to 1660 are usually far better kept and more carefully written than in the following period, from the Restoration in 1660 to the middle of the 18th century, when the keeping of the Register was too frequently delegated to an illiterate Parish 'Clerk' and when the worst writing and spelling in most Registers is to be found.

On 29th September 1654 Parliament instituted Civil Marriage, ordering the Proclamation of Intent on three preceding 'Sabbath' Days before the congregation, or on the three preceding Market Days in the market place of the local town, followed by 'marriage' before a Justice of the Peace. Examples of these marriages at Rotherham are printed on pages 82 to 89 of this volume. On the Restoration of the Monarchy and the old order of things in 1660 an Act of Parliament had to be passed to legalise these civil marriages.

A Duty was imposed on entries in Registers in 1694 but had to be repealed in 1698.

On 25th March 1754 an Act for the better Prevention of Clandestine Marriages, known as Lord Hardwicke's Act, imposing residentiary qualification, took effect, and from this time Marriages are entered according to a set form, banns are recorded, and the contracting parties signed or 'marked' the Register, which was attested by witnesses.

In 1783 a duty of 3d. on every entry in a Register was imposed, but repealed in 1794.

In 1813 an Act known as 'Rose's Act' came into force and the form of Registration again altered, so that a separate set of Books always begins at this date, Baptisms, Marriages and Burials being entered in separate volumes and according to set forms. The age at death, such an important piece of information for the genealogist, was for the first time ordered to be recorded. This set of books lasted until 30th June 1837, when another change was made and a fresh set of volumes begins with the institution of Civil Registration on 1st July of that year.

Readers and Searchers must bear in mind that previous to 1752 the year was mostly reckoned according to 'civil' or ecclesiastical usage, as beginning on the Feast of the Annunciation of the B. V. M. ('Lady Day') 25th March, and not, as in the historical year, on 1st January. Thus 25th February 1750 is 25th February 1751 according to our reckoning. This is sometimes expressed by the use of a double date, thus 25th February 1750^o or 25th February 1750-1.

It must be borne in mind that the Marriage Registers here printed are abstracts of the originals, not verbatim et literatim copies. Thus while every fact and particular given in the original entry has been preserved, the Christian names have been modernised in spelling, partly because uniformity in this immaterial matter greatly facilitates the task of indexing, partly because it obviates the danger of the amateur forgetting that there was in former days no settled system of spelling and imagining that 'Marie' was pronounced differently from Mary or that Gulielmus, Willelmus, and Will. varied in some way from the ordinary William. The surnames have been preserved exactly as spelt in the original in each and every instance except where the caligraphy of old days has transposed or used indifferently such letters as I and J, u and v, writing Jngle for Ingle or Greaues for Greaves, Nvtt for Nutt or Trewloue for Trewlove, when the Editor has copied the letter in its modern form after 1606.

Witnesses' names, which are accorded to all entries after 1753, have not been copied. These are the only particulars given in the originals which are not included in these abstracts and, while some may complain at the omission, it was felt that the enormous increase in the cost of printing, adding 50 per cent. to the number of lines of type required in the later period, was not justified by the small advantage gained by printing this information. In some instances, it is true, the names of the witnesses form a helpful clue to the genealogist, but having obtained all other particulars of the marriage,—names, date, residence, and vocation—from this printed volume, in cases where witnesses' names are really needed the sum of 2s. 7d. should be sent to the incumbent for a certified copy of the entry, for it is not desirable that the Vicar's generosity in allowing the Registers to be printed should deprive him or his successors of the legal fees which are their due. Similarly it should be pointed out that these abstracts are not 'evidence' in the legal acceptance of the term, but when proving a Pedigree in a Court of Law or Registering it at the College of Arms certified copies must be procured from the Vicar.

In all cases where the Marriage is stated to have taken place by virtue of a Licence that fact is recorded in these abstracts, as the Searcher thereby knows that further information as to the age, parentage, and vocation of the parties should be given on the Allegation Bonds in the Archdeaconsry or other office from which the Licence issued.

It should be remembered that at the period covered by these Registers the parish of Rotherham comprised also the chapelries, hamlets, or townships of Greasborough, Haugh, Kimberworth, Masbrough, Thorpe Hesley, Dalton, Eastwood, Orgreave, Catcliffe, Brinsworth, and Tinsley. At Tinsley, however, there is a separate Register of Marriages beginning in 1713.

There are very few entries of more than local interest in the Rotherham Registers, but attention may be drawn to that of the re-marriage of Thomas, Earl of Effingham, in 1766. This was the third Earl of Effingham and Burke gives the date of the marriage as 14th October 1765, so that is presumably the date of the Scotch contract. There was no issue. Other re-marriages in Rotherham Registers will be found under the dates 14 Sept., 1786, & 14 Dec. 1794.

COLLATION OF VOLUMES.

Vol. I. is composite, in good binding, consisting of:—

(A) the paper registers between 1540 and 1560, somewhat badly written, the leaves measuring $12 \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ ins. in fair condition, but somewhat frayed at the edges. This Register was printed by Guest in his Historic Notices of Rotherham 1879.

(B) the parchment copy of c. 1598, from 1560 to 1598, and of c. 1653, from 1640 to 1653. These leaves measure $13 \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ ins., are well written and in good condition.

The contents of Vol. I. are as follows:—

- A. pp. 1, 2. Baptisms, Jan. 1557/8—Oct. 1558.
- pp. 3-6. Baptisms, Jan. 1561/2—Ap. 1563.
- pp. 7, 8. Burials, Dec. 1559—July 1560.
- pp. 9-10. Burials, Ap. 1562—Mar. 1562/3, and one for June 1563.
- pp. 11, 12. Baptisms, Ap. 1563—Dec. 1563.
- p. 13. Blank.
- pp. 14-18. Marriages, Nov. 1556—July 1560.
- pp. 19-30. Burials, Feb. 1556/7—Nov. 1559.
- pp. 31-33. Burials, Dec. 1541—Dec. 1542.
- pp. 34-37. Baptisms, Ap. 1542—Ap. 1543. A slip, measuring $7\frac{1}{2} \times 4$ ins., written on one side only, and bound up between pp. 34 and 35, contains marriages, July—Oct 1540.
- pp. 38-41. Marriages, Ap. 1542—Feb. 1545/6.
- p. 41/2 is written on one side only, and is torn, leaving only about $7\frac{1}{2} \times 4$ ins., but probably only blank paper is torn away.
- pp. 43-46. Burials, May 1543—May 1544. p. 46 is mostly blank, containing only four entries, and these have been erased.
- pp. 47-50. Burials, June 1545—Sep. 1547.
- pp. 51-54. Baptisms, Sep. 1543—May 1545.
- pp. 55-60. Baptisms, Jan. 1547/8—July 1549.*

* The year of these pages is given only in one place, and that by a later hand, but it seems to be correct. A comparison with the Burial registers shows that it cannot very well be later, because Margaret, dau. of John Stancliff, who was, on this computation, baptized 2 Aug. 1548, was buried 2 Jan. 1548/9; John, son of Henry Fox[e], bapt. 17 Oct. 1548, was buried 6 July 1549; Thomas, son of James Swift, bapt. 16 June 1549, was buried 15 July 1549; and Lawrence, son of Lawrence [H]ook[s], bapt. 16 June 1549, was buried, 16 July 1549. Again, we already have the Baptism Register for Aug. 1549—May 1550. In fact, there is some difficulty in putting these pages so late, because of Francis, son of John Grene, whose baptism is entered under 29 June 1548 and his burial on the 24th of the same month; and William and Agnes, children of William Button, whose baptism is entered under 16 Feb. 1548/9 and their burial on the 2nd of the same month. On the other hand, a comparison with the marriage registers makes it impossible to place these baptisms earlier, because they contain the following entries:—

- 10 Sep 1548, Margaret, dau. of Henry Lawton (Henry Lawton married 2 Oct. 1547).
- 2 Feb. 1547/8, Elizabeth, dau. of George Palmer (George Palmer married 21 Nov. 1547).
- 2 Dec. 1548, John, son of John Halle (John Halle married 22 Nov. 1547).
- 7 July 1549, Agnes, dau. of W. Wattson (William Watson married 22 Nov. 1547).
- 26 May 1549, William, son of Thomas Swathe (Thomas Swath married 24 Nov. 1547).
- 12 Oct. 1548, Margaret, dau. of Laurence Shemelde (Laurence Shemeld married 29 Ap. 1548).
- 5 Feb. 1548/9, Margaret, dau. of George Boswell (George Boswell married 29 Ap. 1548).
- 3 June 1548, Margery, dau. of Ralph Dauks (Ralph Dauks married 30 Ap. 1548).
- 9 Aug. 1548, William, son of Richard Walker (Richard Walker married 20 May 1548).
- 5 Oct. 1548, Ellen, dau. of Thomas Andrew (Thomas Andrew married 6 June 1548).
- 23 June 1549, Thomas, son of Oliver Saterweyte (Oliver Saterweyte married 10 June 1548).
- 25 Aug. 1548, William, son of Leonard Browne (Leonard Browne married 17 June 1548).
- 19 Feb. 1547/8, John, son of John Gudeson (John Gooddeson married 10 Aug. 1548).
- 7 July 1549, William, son of W. Grayffe (William Greaffe married 31 Aug. 1548).
- 5 Mar 1548/9, Margaret, dau. of James Cutler (James Cutler married 17 Oct. 1548).
- 25 Mar. 1549 and 10 Ap. 1549, Joan, dau. of John Richardson (John Richardson married 27 Jan. 1548/9).
- 12 Nov. 1548, Agnes, dau. of William Shay (William Shaye married 20 May 1549).

If the father of the child and the husband in the marriage were in all these 18 cases identical, it will be observed that they contain eight instances of marriage preceding child-birth by less than nine months, and two instances where marriage is subsequent to the baptism of the child. Probably some, therefore, are merely coincidences, but their number is too great to suppose that this is the case with all. It seems, therefore, that the date assigned to these baptism entries is the only one which is possible.

N.B.—Symbols of contraction in the early caligraphy are extended to their equivalent letters, enclosed within brackets. Editorial glosses or remarks are expressed in italic type within brackets. After 1753 when signatures are appended to the entries, differences in spelling between the entry and the signature are noted in brackets; but where the parties could not write but only appended their mark, the words ‘signs to’ instead of ‘signs’ are used where differences in the entry occur.

After 1753 it is to be assumed that all persons are described in the Register as of Rotherham Parish and bachelor and spinster respectively unless otherwise stated. See also note on page 186.

Marriages at Rotherham,

1540 to 1837.

[The entries from 1540 to 1559 are found only in the original paper register. They have been printed by Mr. Guest in his 'History,' and the differences of his readings are given at foot under the initial 'G.' For 1560 and 1590-1598 the Register exists in duplicate, viz., the original paper register and the copy on parchment made in accordance with the Canon of 1597. The abstracts for those years here printed are made from the paper register and the differences in the parchment copy, where material, noted in footnotes distinguished with the letters 'p.c.']

[The entries April—July 1560 exist both in the original paper register and in the parchment copy of c. 1598.

They are here given from the paper register, but ¹ These six marriages were at first accidentally placed among the burials on p. 30, where in the fourth the name is Bradberye (G. also reads Bradberye), and in the sixth the names are Cowlte and Rod(s). The marriage of Alexander Cosyn on 15th October was then entered next to that of George Hyll; they were then erased from among the burials, and Alexander Cosyn's marriage was also erased. All seven were then re-entered in order, and the register was continued as above.

Bayeux about 405 A.D. About the year 1716 a large silver plate was found at Risley in Derbyshire, having the inscription 'Exsuperius Episcopus Bayensis dedit.' It has been suggested by the Rev. F. Brodburst that this may have been brought to the County (so introducing the name) in the 15th century by the contingent of soldiers known to have been sent from Derbyshire to the French War about 1415. They fought at Agincourt and were also present at the siege of Bayeux. T. M. B.
