

Helpful Genealogy Sites

Mississippi Department of Archives and History:

http://mdah.state.ms.us/arrec/digital\_archives/

They have some digital documents and they also provide an online catalog so the patron can see what is available and then make a decision to visit or not. The Ms. Dept. of Archives and History is a great place to start.

Mississippi Vital Records:

http://www.health.ms.gov/msdhsite/\_static/31,0,109.html - No documents are available for search, but the patron can fill out an online application to receive death, marriage, or birth certificates.

Mississippi Library Commission: <http://www.mlc.lib.ms.us/index.php> - has information on county records such as cemetery records and some other county specific documents.

Mississippi Genealogy : <http://www.mississippigenealogy.com/> - This website could be helpful, just don't know where they get their information. For that reason, I would be careful in deciding how to use the information. Don't let that discourage the patron; it looks like a useful source.

<http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/> - Some state specific information. Elisabeth Scott, another reference librarian, strongly recommended this site.

<http://www.msghn.org/> Mississippi Genealogy and History Network - Select Your County and discover information or find your County Director and ask for help

<http://www.gravesearch.com>