ABOUT RANDI

Randi Rubenstein is an Amazon best-selling author and leading parent coach who helps parents raise confident, KIND and self-motivated kids.

Randi's signature recipe involves closing the gap between the parent you always swore to yourself you'd be and the parent you currently are when your kids are pushing your buttons. Her book, The Parent Gap- and its coordinating program- help parents evolve and become part of the solution rather than accidentally repeating negative familial patterns generation after generation.

Randi has an uncanny ability to connect the dots for parents in a fun and simple way which translates into more fun and uncomplicated family connections. This transformative approach changes lives and legacies. Randi believes connection, not perfection, is the goal.
