

All Spotless Heart

Josephine Errington + 1902

C.A.Carroll

1. All spot-less heart, no breath of sin e'er marred thy
2. Most val-iant heart, that 'neath the cross of Je-sus
3. Most ten-der heart, no floods of grief thy love could

1. pur-i-ty, — The shin-ing choirs of an-gels show —
2. didst not quail, — It was thy might-y love for Him —
3. ev-er drown; — The sor-rows which once pierced thee through —

1. — quite dim and dark by — thee. — O foun-tain sealed, O
2. — that would not let thee fail. — Teach us thy self-for-
3. — are now thy fair-est — crown. — O Moth-er dear-est,

1. gar-den closed where God doth take de-light — Ob-tain for
2. get-ting love, and make us strong like thee, — Then ask thy
3. sweet-est, best, their love who can re-strain? — Right well thy

1. us pure hearts, to love and hon-or — thee a-right. —
2. Son that we may stand up-on Mount Cal-va-ry. —
3. grate-ful chil-dren know they can-not trust in vain. —