

Hail, Glorious Saint Patrick

Catherine Maguire

Glatz, 1693

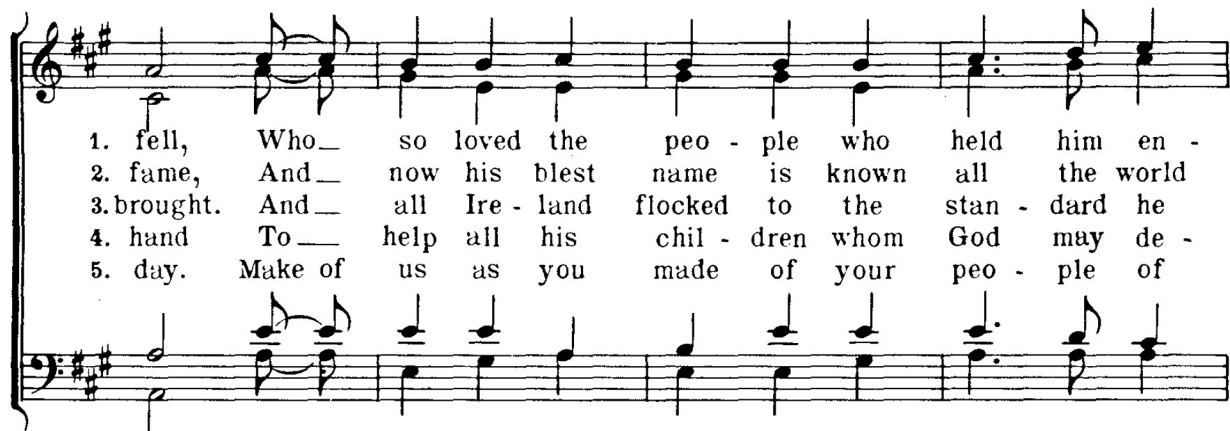

(T. M.)

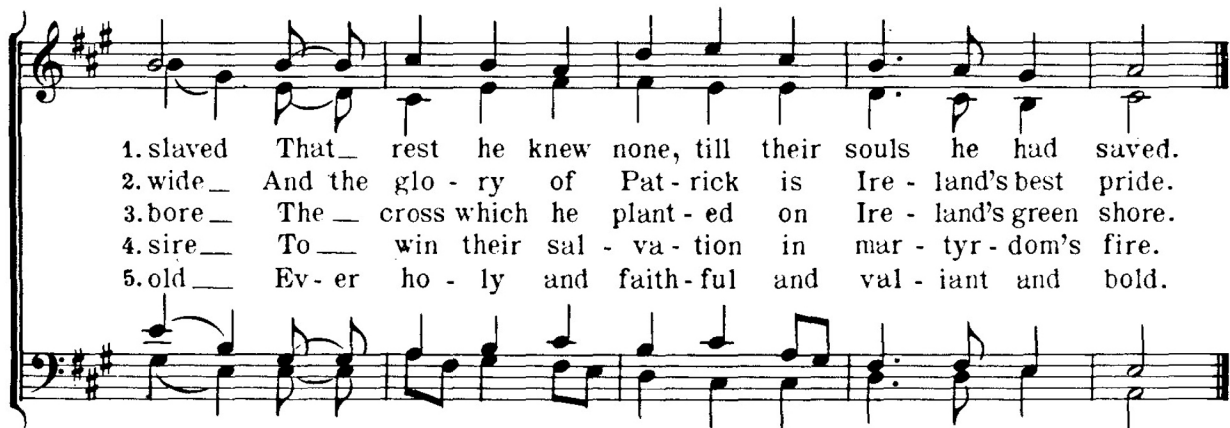

1. Hail, — glo - rious Saint Pat - rick, whom God loved so
2. To the land of his mas - ters a shep - herd boy
3. For the king - dom of Christ was the fight that he
4. That — cross ev - er since has shone o - ver the
5. May your bless - ing fall ev - er on us, too, we

1. well, — By whose prayer count - less bless - ings on sin - ful souls
2. came, — But to con - quer their hearts, not to seek for his —
3. fought; Not a king could re - sist the strong gos - pel he —
4. land — And the saint who had set it there holds forth his —
5. pray, — O great saint, for your help in our la - bor this

1. fell, Who — so loved the peo - ple who held him en -
2. fame, And — now his blest name is known all the world
3. brought. And — all Ire - land flocked to the stan - dard he
4. hand To — help all his chil - dren whom God may de -
5. day. Make of us as you made of your peo - ple of

1. slaved That — rest he knew none, till their souls he had saved.
2. wide — And the glo - ry of Pat - rick is Ire - land's best pride.
3. bore — The — cross which he plant - ed on Ire - land's green shore.
4. sire — To — win their sal - va - tion in mar - tyr - dom's fire.
5. old — Ev - er ho - ly and faith - ful and val - iant and bold.