

I Hail Thee, Kingly Heart Most High

Ascribed to
Bl. Hermann Joseph

Leipzig, 1537
(C.A.C.)

1. I hail Thee, King - ly Heart most high,
2. What love could bring Thee to this doom,
3. O how bit - ter was Thy death,
4. By the death that Thou didst bear

1. As my hap - py heart draws nigh. All my
2. What sor - row fold Thee in its gloom To make
3. How strong, how hun - gry that last breath, How it
4. When Thou for me hung suf - f'ring there, Heart, my

1. joy is to en - fold Thee; All my heart de -
2. Thee pour Thy life out thus, Giv - ing all Thou
3. pierced the sa - cred cell Where the world's life
4. own heart's dear de - light, Keep my love with -

1. lights to hold Thee; Thou dost move me now to speak.
2. hast for us, Out of death our souls to seek?
3. willed to dwell, Tear - ing through Thee, most sweet Heart!
4. in Thy sight, Thee I choose for my own part.