

CANCELLATION OF THE 2020 LETR INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Friday, March 27, 2020

The LETR International Executive Council in conjunction with Special Olympics Maryland, LETR Maryland and Special Olympics International have made the decision to cancel the 2020 LETR International Conference due to the current environment with COVID-19 and the hardships it will place on our LETR & Special Olympics Programs.

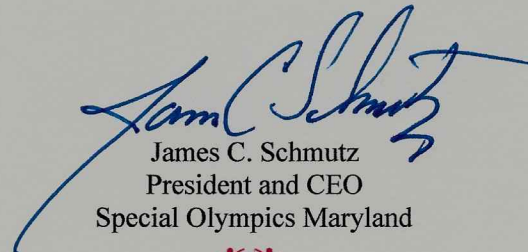

Our respective teams are working diligently on creative ways to continue the motivation, education and inspiration the conference brings to all of us. We hope to have an announcement out to participating programs by the end of April with more details.

Thank you for your patience and understanding through this unique time that we find ourselves in.
