Sarah Hudock RETURN POLICY

My fine art prints and posters are made specifically to order, and especially for you. I go to great length to create beautiful artwork, present it in detail on my website, beautifully and professionally print and package it for shipping, and in the case of Limited Edition Prints, also personally sign and embellish them.

I generally do NOT accept returns unless your print arrives damaged or something is wrong with it. IF there is a printing problem or the item arrives to you damaged, of course I will rectify the situation and send you a replacement immediately. Please contact me with photos of the print and/or shipment damage right away and we can discuss it, as of course I want you to be happy with your purchase.

Damage doesn't happen often, but when it does please contact me and I will make it right for you.

If the return is a result of MY error (you received an incorrect item, for instance) then I will also refund you the return shipping costs.
