

The Tekneka 5080 is an indoor thermo-hygrometer with highly precise temperature and humidity measurements ranging from -50 to 70°C and 10 to 99%RH. Its 4" LCD and large digital fonts make it simple to read the data. It also displays temperature and humidity readings at both low and high levels. Touch screen functionality includes recall of the maximum/minimum temperature and humidity, as well as easy temperature conversion from °C to °F and lighting activation. A highly sensitive humidity sensor on the Tekneka 5080 helps recognize ambient conditions by displaying the user's comfort zone (dry, comfortable, wet). It has a magnetic backing that attaches to metallic surfaces and a desktop stand.
