

Gayle Hayward Becomes Bride of Darrell G. Bailey

The former Miss Gayle Hayward became the bride of Darrell G. Bailey in rites solemnized by Pres. Joseph Fielding Smith, president of the Council of the Twelve, on Thursday morning, Jan. 18. Parents of the newly married couple are Mr. and Mrs. Aldin O. Hayward, Bountiful, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bailey, Woods Cross.

A RECEPTION was held at the Bountiful Ninth Ward the evening of the nuptials to honor the newly married couple. The hall was decorated with large white weeping willow trees with twinkle lights, glass prisms and colored birds among the branches. A glass-topped table displaying Vanda orchids beneath held the tiered diamond-shaped cake which had miniature orchids decorating it.

The bridal gown was a Bianchi gown of peau de soie with lace applique and jeweled trim on the princess bodice. Matching appliques trimmed the bell-shaped ankle-length skirt which extended into a chapel train. The bride's headdress was an original wreath of lily-of-the-valley clustered in front and releasing a bouffant veil of sheerest illusion. She carried a bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids surrounding a trio of large white cattleya orchids and accented with sanderiana leaves.

THE NEW Mrs. Bailey was attended by all of her sisters, Miss Ilene Hayward, Mrs. Verlene Beck, Mrs. Elaine Young and Miss Shauna Hayward. Little Sherolyn Schroeder was flower girl. Their gowns were blue and lavender iridescent satin brocade with bell-shaped skirts caught up in a draped waist and bodice detail. The rounded necklines were topped with hybrid blue vanda orchid leis. Sprays of matching orchids were worn in their hair.

Best man for the occasion was Bob Anderson, with Dick Madsen, Ed Mayer, Gary Larsen and Rich Rampton ushering.

MR. BAILEY fulfilled an LDS mission to Great Britain and is presently attending the graduate school of business administration at the university of Utah. The bride is also a graduate of the university of Utah.

Pre-nuptial parties in honor of the bride were given by Mrs. Lyle B. Nicholes Jr., Mrs. John Rae Anderson, Mrs. Wallace E. Beck, Misses Ilene and Shauna Hayward, Mrs. Ethello Berry, Mrs. Roy A. Nipko, Mrs. Atelle Migliori, Mrs. Dale Ford, Mrs. Douglas Walker and Mrs. George Stubbs.
