

WOODS CROSS

By RUTH S. PAYNE
295-4287

Members of Camp Eutaw, of the Daughters of Utah Pioneers, will hold their monthly meeting Thursday, Nov. 15 at the home of Blanche Cahoon Moss. The meeting will be under the direction of Capt. Marjory Winegar, the lesson will be given by Louise Hogan, and assisting hostesses will be Edith Beazer, Wanie Brown and Mrs. Moss.

Mr. and Mrs. David S. Moss attended the quarterly conference session of the South Ogden stake at the Ogden stake tabernacle on Sunday, Nov. 4, where their daughter, Mildred M. Boyce, was presented an Honorary Golden Gleaner award and her husband, Doreen B. Boyce, the Honorary Master M-Men award. Their daughter Jacqueline Boyce received her Golden Gleaner award at the same service.

Happy parents are Mr. and Mrs. Darrell (Gayle Hayward) Bailey. A son was born to them on Monday, Nov. 5 at the St. Mark's hospital. This is their first child, and also the first grandchild for the Herbert Baileys.

Mr. and Mrs. William Green returned home Monday evening after spending the week end in Delta, visiting with friends Mr. and Mrs. Otis Corbett and also attending the annual pheasant hunt in that area.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ruffin gave a dinner party Saturday evening at their home for Mr.

and Mrs. Ray Nelson and son Kelly of Salt Lake City. Kelly will leave soon for a mission to Australia, and the dinner was given in his honor. Blanche Ruffin arrived home from the Y campus in Provo to attend the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Page and Bishop and Mrs. Hatch Howard spent Saturday in Provo attending the annual homecoming events and football game. After attending the parade, Mr. Page enjoyed visiting with old friends and attending special alumni meetings.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis on Saturday evening, a group of 21 enjoyed a costume party. After a scavenger hunt and a trip through a spook alley the group enjoyed refreshments and lots of visiting. Attending were Lavell and Lucille Galloway, Wayne and Sharron Westergaard, Roger and Deanna Urry, Verl and Rhea Perry, Lincoln and Delores Haacke, Steven Willey, Myra and Doreen Thornton, Leon and Jean Coleman, Thacs and Delores Webb, Calvin and Diane Gibbs and hosts.

HONORED AT DINNER PARTY

Mrs. Nellie M. Ballard, retired postmaster of the Woods Cross post office, was honored at a dinner party Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Brown. A gift was also presented to Mrs. Ballard by those attending who were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. Wettstein, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nelson and the Browns.

Shaunna Moss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Moss, entertained 15 of her friends at a party on Halloween night. The group enjoyed bobbing for apples, a spook alley and refreshments.

Also entertaining was Diana Porter, daughter of the Richard Porters. A group of her friends met at her home Sunday of the past week, enjoying games and refreshments.

STUDY GROUP MEETS

Mrs. Blanche C. Moss and Mrs. Lillie Salter were hostesses Tuesday evening at the Salter home for the monthly meeting of the study group. Instead of the usual get together, invitations were issued to Mr. and Mrs. Orson Ellis, Bishop and Mrs. George Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Boulton, Mary Green, Ardelle Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Hart of Val Verda, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown, who arrived in costume, and entered the spook alley for the blast of the evening. Spooks were Allen, Gary, Brenda and Carla Cleverly. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by the group. Mayor Walter Moss, and Vern Salter also enjoyed this party.

MRS. BENNETT SPEAKS TO LOCAL GROUP

A cottage meeting was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. Elaine Oman in Ruffin Circle. Speaker was Mrs. Frances Bennett, wife of Sen. Wallace Bennett. She spoke of the social activities in the nation's capitol and also answered questions presented by the group attending. Mrs. Oman is very active in the Republican party, serving as secretary of the Bountiful Women's Republican club, and is also vice chairlady of the local precinct.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Scofield and family of Three Forks, Mont. have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cleverly, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Moss, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Cleverly, and Mayor and Mrs. Walter Moss, during this past week.

UNICEF

The drive of UNICEF was conducted in this area during the past week by Mrs. Evelyn Ballinger. The money will be sent to the national agency for this charity, and will provide food for children in Europe and Asia. Those helping in this area were Christine Hendry, Debra and Lynn Johnson, Lynette and David Hood, Becky and Ann Ballinger, Kim and Cory Payne, Mera Lee and Mari Lynn Anderson, Brenda and Carla Cleverly, Carma and Raymond Newbill, and Debra and Diane Hafen.

Charlene Couch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Couch, is wearing a cast on her right arm. Charlene stepped off a chair and broke her wrist on Saturday, but is spry and chipper as ever and hopes to be well soon. Kathy Cahoon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee R. Cahoon is wearing a cast on her leg, which was broken in a fall four weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Burnham have been visited by throngs of people in this past month who have admired their yard. Their flowers and shrubbery at this time of year are extremely beautiful. Mrs. Burnham's appointment as gardener of the year is certainly exemplified in the artistry of this fabulous yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hendry and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Payne attended a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Olsen in Salt Lake City on Saturday evening.

PTA CARNIVAL

The South Bountiful PTA, under the direction of Mrs. George Ballinger, held its annual carnival Friday evening at the school. Mrs. Dean Titensor, carnival organizer was in charge of special arrangements for this festive evening. Games, which consisted of Pic-a-Pocket, fish pond, darts, cake walk, and bingo, were conducted by room mothers and PTA officers, as was the beauty parlor, barber shop, balloon stand, and the kitchen, which featured home made baked goods, barbecue and hot dogs.

A special thanks is extended to the mothers of the area by the PTA for all the food which was donated by them. A large crowd attended and the carnival was termed a big success.

ENTERTAIN AT NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Ferguson entertained a group of their friends at their new home in Meadow Lane subdivision Saturday evening. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Ballard, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Womble, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Williams, Renee Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Tueller, Mr. and Mrs. James Cleverly, Mr. and Mrs. William Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Don Beazer, and Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Mass. The group enjoyed a costume party and refreshments.

NEW DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Salter are parents of a girl born Tuesday, Nov. 6. Mrs. Salter is the former Janiece Dunn. This is the first child for the Salters and the first grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn. Mr. and Mrs. Vern Salter are happy about this addition also.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Kirk and children traveled to Payson to visit friends and also attend the pheasant hunt in that area. Warren Anderson traveled to Springville but many of the local hunters spent the week end hunting our own area.

CHURCH NEWS

The Second ward Primary officers and teachers met at the church Monday evening for their monthly preparation meeting. After the business portion, which was conducted by Pres. Bernice Couch, the lesson was given by the in-service trainer, Mrs. Lucille A. Me.

The First ward Relief Society, under the direction of Pres. June J. Ellis, will hold its annual bazaar, Friday, Nov. 16 at the ward recreation hall. The doors will open at 6 p.m. and immediate sale of goods will begin. Again this year the kitchen will feature a cafeteria style dinner, and everything will be a dime a dip. A bakery department, picture show for the young children, and lots of fun in store for everyone. A quilt will be given as a door prize. You must be present to win.

The Second ward will hold a dinner on Saturday, Nov. 10 at the ward recreation hall. Under the direction of the Sunday school organization, a turkey dinner will be served at 6 p.m. Bring your own plate, glass and silverware.

Sunday afternoon, a parents' demonstration was held for members of the Second ward Co-Pilots class, of the Primary organization. Under the direction of Rhea Perry and Lora Cannon, this program was conducted. Parents and class members enjoyed refreshments at the conclusion of events.

The Second ward Mutual organization held a party on Halloween for all ward members. Lots of games, and a scavenger hunt was the highlight of the evening, which was topped off with doughnuts and cider.

Saturday evening, the stake Drivers' Dance will be held at the stake house. All Laurels, MIA Maids and Explorers are invited to attend. A floor show has been prepared.

Faye Salter was hostess for the MIA Maids Tuesday evening at her home. The group enjoyed a trip through a spook alley and were served refreshments. Ellen Staples is their leader. rsp

Davis County Clipper
November 9, 1962