

Winners to Go On Nationwide TV

Two young Bountiful football enthusiasts will compete for division honors in a passing, kicking and punting contest on nationwide television this Sunday. If they should win the division, they will go on to the national contest, since they have already won the Bountiful, state and area. The contest where they will meet 35 other division winners from throughout the country will be part of the half time activities of the Chicago Bear and New York Giant football games Sunday. They will leave Saturday by jet, accompanied by their fathers; Coach Paul Cook; and Don Willey, of Marion Willey and Son, local Ford dealer that sponsored the contest here. The two boys, 9 years old Brad Brandenburg, left, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Brandenburg, 944 North 900 East, and 7 year old Steven Spendlove, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Spendlove, 51 East 1800 South, won over about 375 other boys who took part in the Bountiful contest.
