"Do you remember..."

...the horrific Starcruiser crash... your eyes destroyed by the ensuing blaze... the months of intensive recuperation... the many operations to replace your sight with the latest artificial-optics... your recruitment as an agent... the mission briefing...

You have been chosen to be sent to the planet of Andromeda, there to locate and return a missing scientist; Galaxy-wide peace depends on it! On the planet are agents and androids awaiting your command, but how you decide to accomplish your mission, codenamed "Eyes of the Eagle", is up to you!

This futuristic Fantasy role-playing challenge enables you to select and save your character's personal details, to explore a huge alien landscape and control other characters.

Includes 2 discs and comprehensive 48-page manual.
