

ON THE BALL

World Cup Edition

Sports

AMIGA
500, 500+, 600, 1000,
2000, 3000, min. 1MB,
2 MB + HD recommended,
Mouse

ASCON

ON THE BALL

World Cup Edition

On The Ball takes football management simulations into a new league – it will delight football enthusiasts and bring out the sports-strategy genius in you.

As the manager and trainer of your national team, the challenge is to lead your country to victory in the World Cup. The reward for your efforts will be the bitter-sweet taste of the highs and lows of international football – played out in front of your eyes in the most realistic TV-style coverage ever seen.

Football management games were never like this!

It's a foul in the penalty area, get yellow card for Aldrich (South Korea). Defensive error Harbuck is through on the Keeper! Goes around him.

Everything before was just training

Free kick for a foul awarded to England. Distance from goal is yards. Harbuck is standing ready.

Kick-off! Spectacular animated TV-style coverage of the match, complete with running commentary and crowd noise, transports you right into the heart of the stadium. Any mistake in your training programme, team selection or line-up is going shine through now, but it's not too late to make substitutions or changes in playing method and tactics, if you want to swing the result.

5 difficulty levels, 1 - 4 players, full World Cup programme or begin with qualifiers, group and individual pep-talks, strategy sessions, view your opponents' matches, create your own weekly and daily schedule, animated match highlights and more!

The office is your field of action. From here you can access at the click of a mouse button, all the data and statistics you could need. From here you select your team, based on players' form, strength and personalities, choose your tactics and create a training programme.

Now you must deal with the harsh glare of publicity. Think carefully about your responses to the questions from the news-hungry press – some comments are best made in private. If you want to criticize a player, a little heart-to-heart chat may prove more constructive. On the other hand...

© Ascon Ltd. U.K.
2 Canfield Place
London NW6 3BT