P.O.W.

- Awesome Sound Effects
- Superb Graphics
- Smooth Animation

Every red blooded American is sickened by our enemy's injustice toward our men who gave so much for their country. Many of our boys are still over there and you're going to get them out. Battle through jungles, native villages, ammunition dumps, concentration camps, rivers and more. You set the strategy for the rescue mission and if you're lucky, your escape.

- For 1 or 2 Players
- You Decide the Strategy
- The Ultimate in Action

P.O.W.™ is one of several new Actionware adventures that allow you to get into a game like never before. Use your mouse as a gun, or by using the Actionware Phaser Light Gun (optional), you can actually shoot the bad guys up to 15 feet away.

You will find adventure and action like never before.
