Shop around for a useful companion. Make sure that it's carpet trained.

Explore strange new galaxies. Seek new civilizations.

"Pick up" some useful information from these subterranean super-brains!

Catch some really cosmic tunes. Whoa, dude!

Stardate: A long, long time ago (sounds familiar, huh?) in a galaxy just around the corner...

You are the janitor on the Spaceship Arcade.

Your mission!...To scrub dirty floors...To replace burned-out light bulbs...To clean out latrines...

TO BOLDLY GO WHERE NO MAN HAS SWEEPED THE FLOOR!

CAPTAIN'S LOG:

SATURDAY, 01:14:07 p.m.: A super-secret Star Generator has just been tested successfully. Your crew has been celebrating. Your planet will soon have the new sun it desperately needs to keep its eco-systems alive. Your ship, the Arcade Research Lab is currently heading home to announce the good news.

MONDAY, 08:46:22 a.m.: An army of Sarien warriors, those nasty, trigger-happy space pirates from the Lower East Side, are hot on your ship's tail! Their evil scheme...to capture the Star Generator and use its secrets to take over the galaxy.

The Unforeseeable Future: It's up to you! You become the sanitation engineer turned swashbuckling hero in this 3-D animated adventure game. You will pilot ships, float in space, battle fierce aliens, and perhaps even make time to catch the headlining band at the Keronian Rock Palace.
