

ROB McELNEA - TEAM PEPSI SUZUKI

KEVIN SCHWANTZ - TEAM PEPSI SUZUKI
WINNER JAPANESE GRAND PRIX 1988.

THE WINNING TEAM!

Electric Dreams are delighted to be in association with Pepsi – Suzuki in the promotion of this superb new computer game 'Super Hang-On'.

Pepsi-Cola and Suzuki Motor Company, two of the biggest and most respected companies in their respective fields, have entered a sponsorship, promotions and advertising agreement. This will establish Pepsi-Cola as the first major consumer products company to sponsor a motorcycle factory team.

The two men in the Team Pepsi – Suzuki are racing in the 1988 500cc World Championships, a series of at least fourteen races spanning three continents. Both world-class riders, they are Kevin Schwantz of the USA and Rob McElnea of Great Britain.

McElnea, born in 1959, has now completed 10 years of racing. Successfull in the Isle of Man TT races, he then turned his attention to the Grand Prix circuit. In 1984, he won the prestigious Classic TT on the 37.73 mile Mountain circuit and, a year later, scored a double victory for Suzuki by winning both the Classic and the Senior TT races. His hobbies include trials riding and golf.

Kevin Schwantz is regarded as one of the hottest racing prospects for many years. The 23 year-old Texan is to mount his first full 500cc World Championship campaign in 1988 – just two years after making his Grand Prix debut. A former professional motor-cross rider, he has already made a huge impact on both sides of the Atlantic, in the American Superbike Championship and the 500cc World Championship. His hobbies include golf, watersports, shooting and ski-ing.
