★ BEACH-HEAD II™ ★

By Roger and Bruce Carver

"The DICTATOR Strikes Back!"

Victory at hand . . . The Fortress destroyed, the enemy on the run. Then, a brilliant suicide air attack leaves the Allied fleet in a heap of mangled metal at the bottom of the Harbor. No longer do you hold the advantage. All that's left of your forces is a squadron of helicopters and several platoons of battle-weary infantry.

From the mountains nearby, the Dictator, known only as the Dragon, is watching and waiting to attack.

Feeling the moment is right, he issues the following demand, "Your forces are surrounded and your position is futile. Surrender now or the prisoners will suffer for your stubbornness."

The odds are totally against you, but your decision is immediate. Allied forces are poised to proceed inland to rescue their comrades and capture the Dragon once and for all. But whose final battle will it be? His . . . or Yours?

Beach-Head II is a true "HEAD-TO-HEAD," two player, multi-sequence game that allows you to play either with a friend or against the computer. It features VOICE SIMULATION to add to the excitement of battle and stunning high resolution, three dimensional graphics.
