The fun begins when Yogi and Boo Boo wake up from their long winter's nap and find out that their beloved home Jellystone Park must close, and that all of the bears will be sent to a zoo. Yogi cannot bear the thought of being cooped up, and so he and Boo Boo must make their escape.

Baron Von Bankjob has escaped from jail! Who comes to the rescue? It's Hong Kong Phooey, emerging from the sticky top drawer of his special file cabinet, with the help of trusty police cat, Spot. The latest living legend of our time emerges, mask and kimono askew, the indispensable Kung Fu manual tucked firmly inside his pocket.

Ruff and Reddy have agreed to test Professor Flipnoodles Pocket Rocket for him. This blasted off but something went wrong and the rocket went out of control leading them out into deep space. The rocket crash landed on an alien world inhabited by aliens called Lilli-Punies, who are small, blue, but very very wary of their visitors. In fact they capture Reddy and tell Ruff that he can get his friend back when he rescues their trapped alien friends.
