Fernando Herrera has done it again! From the creator of Astro Chase™ and My First Alphabet™ comes Bristles™. With outrageous graphics and dazzling game play, testing quick reactions, concentration, logic and strategy, it is mind (and joystick) boggling!! Featuring Sex-Select™, you can choose either boy or girl painters. Depending on the computer system, as many as 4 can play at one time.

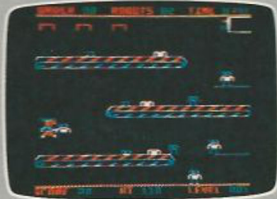

Bristles features 8 different game screens and 6 skill levels for each building. Scramble to paint the entire building while avoiding the smart Bucket Chucker™, dumb Buckets and flying Half-Pints™. Take the elevators, climb the stairs and watch out for the super's daughter; she puts her hand prints all over the place! Then there's prizes, candy canes, "invisible paint"....

With fully animated characters, music, sound effects, multiple screens and hi-res graphics, you can't help but want to add Bristles to your collection of Herreraware!™

... more exciting games ...

Flip and Flop™

Panic Button™

Boing!™
