

A Strive For Excellence
A Fight For Existence

The experiment has gone wrong — the second brain implant is growing erratically, at this rate the Professor will die.

Your mission as Captain of the Microsubmersible is to undergo shrinking, guide your craft through the blood stream and repair the second brain.

Sounds easy — but this will be your toughest challenge yet!

- ★ Horizontal BI-DIRECTIONAL scrolling.
- ★ Pit your wits against the body's immune system — fight off plasma and blood cells.

- ★ Battle your way through BIONIC limbs and mechanical organs.
- ★ Amazingly effective weapon system and variety of attack formations.
- ★ EXCELLENT graphics.
