

A movie poster for the film 'Darkman'. The central figure is a man in a dark trench coat and a fedora, his face obscured by shadows. He is holding a glowing, fiery object in his right hand and a glowing, icy object in his left. The background is a dramatic sky with orange and red flames on the left and a dark blue night sky on the right. In the upper right, two helicopters are flying. At the bottom, a city skyline is visible. The title 'DARKMAN' is prominently displayed in the center in a large, white, bold font, with a small silhouette of the character integrated into the letter 'A'.
