The secret forest of Elidon has shrugged off the cold shroud of winter and the Faerie queen is once more the ruler of this magical place. Her faithful subjects flutter and dart

For many years we have explored the leafy pathways together and you are the only mortal to have touched the hidden magic of this place. Now that the warmth of Spring is here, there is much work to be done.

through the woodland glades making preparations for the ball at dusk. A hush falls over the forest and in the distance the sound of a horn is heard, echoed by the trill of pan pipes from a nearby clearing.

you help me to complete this task so I may sit by her side? You will learn many things as we travel, for Elidon is not all it appears to be, it has dark places where jealous tree spirits whisper and hide, hungry for the dust that sustains me. It does not give Deep in the forest grow the seven flowers of Finvarra which are woven into a garland to grace the head of my queen. Seven potions are lost in her kingdom and these must be taken to the flowers to make them bloom. Will up its secrets easily, barriers must be overcome with harmony and spirits dispersed with a magic touch. Together we can journey through Elidon and find the magic flowers needed to banish winters cold shadow.

WHERE

Where are the Faeries?
Where can we find them?
We've seen the Faerie - rings
They leave behind them!

When they have danced all night,
Where do they go?
Lark, in the sky above,
Say, do you know?

Is it a secret
No one is telling?
Why, in your garden
Surely they're dwelling!

No need for journeying,
Seeking afar:
Where there are flowers,
There Faeries are!

The Faerie may fly or walk in any room and she can hover by pressing fire. She may pick up any useful items by walking over them and pressing down. She can only carry three of these, and if any more are collected she will drop earlier ones. Faerie dust and lucky charms are collected by touching them.
