FORGOTTEN WORLDS

For years, the Earth has been under a state of siege from a conquering alien horde. They have crossed the galaxy to add our world to their evil empire. The aliens are intent on the elimination of every man, woman, and child on the planet. And only you can prevent this infamy. The fighting is fast and terribly fierce, but so is your determination to repel the invaders and save Mother Earth.

Wearing an anti-gravity device, you fly through enemy defenses, reaching the alien bases and annihilating them. Your arsenal of weapons is awesome, but so are your obstacles. The invaders possess the most destructive firepower in the known universe. Their fighting array of guided missiles, unspeakable monsters, cyborg assassins, and more will be out to terminate you, their last threat.
