LOADING INSTRUCTIONS

Use SHIFT and RUN STOP only. Use number 2 port only if only 1 joystick is required.

You have entered the high-tech headquarters of the enemy. Your mission is to steal some top secret documents from the safe and then make your way to the roof where you will be picked up by helicopter.

'Intelligence' reports that the building has various security devices including different types of particle beam doors. To pass these you need to find quantities of the relevant particle shields. Hopefully you will also be able to find other artifacts which will help you overcome the various other obstacles blocking your path.

Armed only with your Kendo Sword, you will have to be very skilled to battle your way past all of the guards to complete your mission.
