

The cover art for the Kung-Fu Master video game features a vibrant, stylized illustration. At the top, a yellow dragon with green wings is perched on a red balcony. Two figures are visible on the balcony: one on the left holding a glowing orb, and another on the right. The background is a deep red with circular motifs. In the center, a large yellow sign with a black border contains the title 'KUNG-FU MASTER' in a bold, stylized yellow font. Below the sign, two men in blue martial arts uniforms are engaged in a sparring routine on a wooden floor. The man on the left is in a low, defensive stance, while the man on the right is performing a high kick. Behind them is a blue wall with a yellow rectangular window. The overall aesthetic is reminiscent of classic arcade game artwork.
