NINJAS INVADE N.Y. The Daily Ed

Back With A Vengeance

New York: An elite corps of Ninja Warriors has unleashed a fury of ruthless violence on the streets of Manhattan, according to Police Commissioner Mark Cale. Though the identities and motives of the black-clad assailants are unknown, a centuries-old vendetta is thought to be behind the rash of killings.

"We've armed ourselves with numchukas, shurikens, and swords in order to deal with this threat," said Cale. Amidst a general clamor for protection, Cale asks that people avoid Central Park and its environs during the current unrest.
