MOUNTAIN KING™

Plunder diamond-laden caverns; follow haunting melodies in pursuit of Mountain King's golden crown!

Deep in the heart of a secret mountain, a golden crown of inestimable worth is enthroned in a sequestered Temple. The ominous Skull Spirit stands guard over it and will only admit treasure-seekers with the power of the Flame Spirit. Pluck 1,000 diamonds from the tunnel walls as you descend deeper into the abyss to release the elusive Flame Spirit. Its music and ghostly flashes lure you. Grab it! Race to the Temple... at last you're inside! Seize the crown and race to the mountain top.

Sound easy? Wait. Rampaging Bats flap by trying to steal back the Flame Spirit or the Crown, and the Giant Spider lurks to snare you in its web.

Armed only with a flashlight and a thirst for adventure, you'll need nerves of granite to become Mountain King. Come on...you're going underground!
