MURDER ON THE ATLANTIC

« Murder On the Atlantic takes place in the thrilling 1930s atmosphere of Le Bourgogne, a luxurious transatlantic liner. You play the part of the detective who finds himself mixed up in murder against a background of pre-war tensions, transatlantic speed records, spies, champagne and masked balls.

Beside the computer game programm, the games comes with actual ship reports, love notes, letters, coded informations, photographs, a bullet case, button, lenght of string and lots more.

There are 40 people to cross-examine, ranging from glamorous movie stars, jazz musicians and chambermaids.

These new and original settings for computer games make a refreshing change from the seemingly endless procession of games involving knights, magicians and lost beauties. ».
