

S.S. BOURGOGNE

16th april 1938

My dearest mother,

I am having a lovely journey. The captain is very nice. I've seen every part of the ship even the parts which are forbidden where you need a special authorisation from the superintendant (of the boat, not the police).

Tonight I am going to the theatre where there is a magician, Martini, with his magical trunk which makes women disappear - except for you.

lots of kisses
your little Lucien