

PARK PATROL™

By Tony Ngo

We met these fierce rangers who strike terror into the hearts of vicious forest beasts.

Well, it's sort of like summer camp. Only, it's a whole mess better. Thanks to the miracle of computer technology, an ingenious "customizer option" now lets you have a hand in creating your very own scenic parkland.

But then, you've gotta protect it.

On land and on water. Swampy, snake-infested and slightly silly, it's your park. And, you're its Ranger. (We're talking responsibility.)

We'll give you a raft, snake repellent and a few morsels of nourishment. Period. No tenderfoots need apply.

So, be a man. Or, be a woman. That's up to you, too. And it's the last easy decision you'll have any time to make. The great outdoors await.
