POLE POSITION II

Commodore 64™ and 128™

IBM® CGA

The great arcade racing classic comes home.

These are the last nerve-racking seconds in the countdown for the qualifying run, and your Formula 1 racecar is running hot. The light turns green. You fly from the starting line. Skill and split-second reflexes determine who will get the pole position in the big race. Careen around corners, shift into high, scream down the straight-aways. Your pulse races as fast as your car as you deftly weave your way toward the checkered flag and victory!

Features:

- All the high-speed adventure of the arcade classic — in your own home
- Detailed graphics and sound effects recreate the excitement of Formula 1 racing
- Smooth animation for realistic race action
- Four challenging racecourses
