

Name: R. Daneel Olivaw

Occupation: A humaniform positronic robot created by Dr. Fastolfe. The only humaniform robot on any world. Regarded as a triumph throughout the field of robotics. R. Daneel has worked with you on past investigations.

Physical description: Humane face, voice and gestures. Faultlessly human in appearance. Vast and extremely quick memory.

Personality traits: Dependable, loyal, truth-seeking. Able to express superficial emotion.

Political profile: N/A

Miscellaneous: A friend of yours. Bound to the Three Laws of Robotics, but could he be re-programmed by the Globalists?

Partner or no partner he's still under suspicion

Name: Gladia Solaria

Occupation: Artist and designer of robot clothing.

Physical description: Facial features surprisingly similar to those of Dr. Vasilia, but softer. Rumored to be approximately 35 years of age.

Personality traits: Open and responsible, but occasionally short-tempered.

Political profile: Considered a proponent of "open door" space exploration, although she doesn't actively campaign.

Miscellaneous: Gladia was a close friend of Dr. Fastolfe, a surrogate daughter. His murder is the second time she has experienced personal tragedy. Gladia was accused of the murder of her husband. You cleared her of that charge. Your relationship as friends was dramatized in the recent hyperwave drama.

Be careful here,

Name: Dr. Vasilia Aliena

Occupation: Noted roboticist

Physical description: Hair always in tight, blonde curls. Tough exterior, considered quite beautiful by most Aurorans.

Personality traits: Vasilia is the biological daughter of Dr. Fastolfe, but they were never very close. She does not speak kindly of him. Vasilia is analytically brilliant, a person of immense talent, but her acquaintances view her as vengeful and morose.

Political profile: A Globalist and believer in "Enlightened Self-Interest." A member of the R.I.A. (Robotics Institute of Aurora).

Miscellaneous: Her feelings about her father's death are unclear at this time.

Handle her with kid gloves!

Name: Santirix Gremionis

Occupation: Hair stylist and clothing designer.

Physical description: Age 33–35, fair skin, light hair. Has a moustache.

Personality traits: Gremionis is naive, a romanticist prone to possessive jealousies. Most often you will find him friendly, but he is more emotional than most Aurorans and his behavior can be both passionate and explosive.

Political profile: Gremionis lives at the Robotics Institute but is apolitical.

Miscellaneous: Frequently found in the company of women, Gremionis is a rejected suitor of Gladia.

Who or what does he really want?

Name: Dr. Kelden Amadiro

Occupation: Master roboticist, founder and director of the Robotics Institute.

Physical description: Broad, heavyset. Bulbous nose and dark, curly hair. Swarthy complexion.

Personality traits: Amadiro appears jovial and outgoing. Do not be fooled. Inside, he is cold and autocratic, an individualist who seeks to use the name of Aurora to fulfill personal ambitions.

Political profile: One of the most ardent Globalists. Driven by the desire to launch humaniform robots into space. Amadiro is anti-Earth, an arch enemy of Fastolfe and other space liberalists.

Miscellaneous: Our consensus is that Amadiro's intellect was never a match for Fastolfe's brilliance—a fact Amadiro knows all too well, and has had a hard time living with.

Remember—all he needs was Fastolfe's formula to

design robots to settle new space exploration!

Name: Rutilan Horder, Mr. Chairman

Occupation: Chairman of the World Legislature

Physical description: 331 years of age. Short, thickset, massive chest and shoulders. Has sparse white hair, bushy eyebrows and a deep, decisive voice.

-always refer to him as Mr. Chairman

Personality traits: As the most powerful man on the planet, the Chairman commands respect. He is objective and fair-minded, willing to listen with interest to the most extraneous of details in a case such as this; however, his patience has a limit.

Political profile: Regard him as a humanist—if that is the most well-received philosophy of the moment.

Miscellaneous: Once you feel that you have identified the murderer, you will appear before the Chairman to present your case. The final authority in this matter rests with him.
