SABOTEUR II

You are Necra, second generation Ninja warrior; hand-picked and trained in special weaponry forces and hand-to-hand combat. Labeled a loner and ruthless killer, Mission Control considered you a high level risk . . . until today! Now they want you to single-handedly seek and destroy a radical band of terrorists before they attack the capitol of the United States. Threatening the lives of millions, they've entrenched themselves deep within U.S. soil and have aimed their massive missile silo directly at Washington's strategic defense system. It's all up to you now . . . fail and you'll see the United States reduced to rubble . . . triumph and you will receive the highest ranking of Ninja warrior.

Your mission is to hang glide by night into the heavily guarded complex and search the buildings and intricate underground passages (over 700 screens) to discover their main control room. Once inside, you must find the punched computer tape needed to activate the missile and redirect it's fateful path! Escape by motorcycle before the massive android guards and their deadly black pumas can abort your final assault!

Features Include:

- Fast action graphics • Seven hundred complex screens
- Multiple skill levels • Multiple mission levels
