For the COMMODORE 64
by Ed Hobbs
CARTRIDGE VERSION

Excitement and danger under the sea! From the depths of the ocean in a lone submarine, you try to destroy a convoy of enemy ships and its escort while staying alive amidst exploding depth charges, mines and torpedoes. Superior maneuvering ability, courage and an aquatic ally are your only hope for survival in the battle.

- An arcade style game
- Five different levels of play
- Keyboard or joystick controlled

This program is fully guaranteed. If it ever fails to boot, return the original cartridge to Brøderbund Software for a free replacement. If the cartridge has been physically damaged, please include $10 for replacement.
