Slurpy

... the loveable little character who just can't stop eating. He is only small but his appetite is huge.

He was born with a large snout-like mouth through which he slurps such tasty snacks as Glowbugs and Cave Birds.

Life isn't all a bed of roses for this little chap though, he is very vulnerable to attacks from his enemies.

Guide Slurpy about the caves devouring the various creatures as you go, in this amazing fun game written entirely in machine code. You will have to be very skilful and brave to avoid such sinister creatures as the Widowmaker and the Red Death.

Joystick Control.

One or two player game.

Superb sound and graphics really bring Slurpy to life.
