Airstrike on South American Drug Bases

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Pentagon sources today revealed that the elite 7th Air Wing will strike at South American drug operations. Fighter pilots will fly solo missions against the heavily defended fields, refineries and seagoing transport of the drug kingpins. Mission Overview:

- 10 DIFFERENT MISSIONS
- Strikes from carriers and airstrips to be launched against land and sea targets.
- SPECIALLY MODIFIED F4's
- Built for maximum combat control — barrel roll evasion, split-S close pursuit counterattack.
- PILOTS WHO BAIL OUT
- Pilots will control their chute and body angle to reach rescue zones.

WE GO AFTER 'EM WITH CANNONS AND HEAT SEEKING MISSILES.

CAREFUL WITH CO-PILOTS: JOHNSON MEDAL OF HONOR WINNER. CLAY-PURECHICKEN.

OBJECTIVE: COLUMBIAN COCAINE DRYING SHEDS. (SOLDIER OF FORTUNE) GENE SCOFF.
