SOLAR FOX

This cartridge may only be used with the Commodore 64 system.

Colorful flashing energy forms surround your space cruiser . . . strange alien crafts maintain a vigilant patrol, firing whenever you pilot into their range . . . enter this universe of grids patterned with pulsating energies, aliens, and unknown challenges in SOLAR FOX.

Maneuver your ship over the grid, in an attempt to erase the flashing pattern—20 different patterns!—while avoiding the deadly vortices shot by the patrolling alien crafts trying to destroy you!

After every fourth rack, race the clock in the CHALLENGE RACKS, where your piloting skill must be perfect.

Increasing difficulty and an unlimited number of levels add to the challenge of this great Bally Midway arcade conversion!
