

SPACE ACE 2101

For Commodore 64

By: Mike Davis

This daring arcade strategy is a game of time, space, dimension, money and war with alien forces. The year is 2101 and to house the growing human race, the frontiers of space must constantly be extended. Aliens are aggressive and aggression meets with aggression but you enjoy the subtleties of nurtured intelligence. Additional investment will strengthen the powers of your battleship, which will see you through many skirmishes, but it is the alien assembly line from where this aggression is fed which remains the source of your problems. Destroy this generating assembly plant... and your people will make you a hero.

True 3D arcade style strategy with SAVE GAME and LOAD GAME feature.
