

SPACEBIKE

Joystick required

SPACEBIKE - the meanest, best looking shooting match yet on the Commodore 64. Climb onto your GTX Armoured bike, and kickstart her into life. If you're after action, you've come to the right place and you're sure gonna get plenty!

Twist and turn through level after level of stunning interactive graphics, blasting your way through some of the ugliest aliens ever, and just watch those old temples crumble as you pump 'em with plasma bolts! You'll need all the weapons you can get to cope with the Guardian at the end of each level - and if it's pure firepower you want, you won't be disappointed 'cos there's plenty to choose from. You just need to collect all the coins dropped by the slime you waste along the way!

SPACEBIKES - the heat is on ... can you take the pace?

Features include:

- ★ fabulous interactive backdrops
- ★ supersmooth parallax scrolling
- ★ a whole armoury of lethal weapons
- ★ end of level guardians out for your blood
- ★ five huge levels of destructive mayhem
- ★ stunning soundtrack and fx
