Two Madcap Missions on One Disk! Straight from our Joke & Dagger department comes the ultimate battle of (nit)wits! Those comical Cold War combatants — the Black Spy and the White Spy — have come to life from the pages of Mad Magazine. So, get set for non-stop action and strategy as these two idiots-of-intrigue bumble through the most challenging cases of their careers!

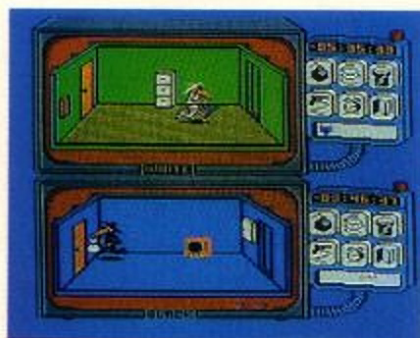

"The Island Caper" Mission. The morons of mayhem take a wrong turn at Club Med and end up on the trail of top secret missile parts buried on a treacherous desert isle. Find and construct the missile before your opponent and you can leave the island on your hidden submarine. But you'd better hurry! Wait too long and you'll have a front row seat to a volcanic eruption.

The Island Caper: Retaliate against your opponent with an assortment of booby traps from your "Trapulator."

And that's the least of your worries! You've got to survive your adversary's assortment of coconut bombs, snares & punji pits — while trying to avoid man-eating sharks and quicksand. Thwart your opponent by clobbering him with an array of weapons from your Trapulator, but remember...you may become the next booby caught in your own trap!

"Embassy Espionage" Mission. Your mission: penetrate the foreign embassy, heist the top secret briefcase and leave in time to catch your "get-away" jet. But wait! Before you escape you'll need a passport, the secret plans, keys and money. Of course your klutzy counterpart has planted plenty of booby traps throughout the compound to snuff you out!

Embassy Espionage: The Simulation feature allows you to view your opponent's "undercover" actions on a split screen.

Will you find a time bomb in your briefcase or a club on your cranium? Remember, your adversary is a cunning expert at "sapotage." You must outwit and outhit him before this dealer in "Messpionage" can complete his "Mission Improbable."
