No need to wait your turn as you guide the white and black Spies through the inter-connecting rooms of the foreign embassy. You'll need to keep one eye on your opponent, though, as you set (and defuse) a variety of booby traps, engage in club to club combat and frantically search for the Top Secret Briefcase; but don't forget to collect your passport, secret plans, money and a key which must be obtained in order to escape before your plane takes off.
