STARQUAKE

~~RICCOCHET~~

BY MASTERTRONIC

RC 025

Message has just reached Earth that an unstable planet has emerged from a black hole on the edge of the galaxy. If the core of this planet is not rebuilt it will implode causing the whole universe to destroy itself in a starquake. You, the Bio-Logically Operated Being have just been volunteered for this exceedingly hazardous task. A C+VG Game of the Month and a Crash Smash. Can you afford to miss it?

~~RICCOCHET~~

You are the Bio-logically Operated Being commonly called BLOB, and you have been chosen for this mission, not because you are innately superior or eminently suited, just 'cause everybody else has pranged their space ships, so get on with it and save the universe.
