ADVANCED LEVEL

Cleverly disguised within every SUSPECT package: your SUSPECT disk; the best-selling book Murder and Modern Manners; a clue-laden business card; costume receipt; party invitation; a note from your editor, and an article from the exclusive magazine, The Maryland Countryside.

YOU'RE GUILTY UNTIL PROVEN INNOCENT.

You have walked into a hotbed of deceit and trickery. And now they're accusing you of something you couldn't have done. But they have proof that you did it. "You're a killer," they say. And until you can prove them wrong, you're guilty as charged—murder.

Among society's upper crust, murder is the kind of nastiness that must be cleaned up quickly. So isn't it convenient that you, a struggling journalist looking for a good time and a good story, end up the scapegoat? The evidence is stacked against you, and you're being forced to prove your own innocence. And someone else's guilt. But no one wants to help you. You're an outsider. And only an outsider could be so rude as to accept an invitation to the social event of the season. Then spoil it all.
