"Grandpa Is a Grumpy Old Man"

Grandpa is a grumpy old man. He is grouchy because groceries keep getting more expensive. He grimaced and grumbled, "I rather go hungry than pay $5.00 for a box of granola."

Grandpa went on griping about the price of grapes and grieving about the cost of grain. This old man will always hold a grudge. I never met a man who would grunt and growl at a graham cracker!

One day, when I grow old and my hair turns gray, I will not groan about the price of groceries. I may even grin when I see a box of granola selling for $15.
