

#97 old Advanced

"The Untold Story of a Marigold"

I crossed a threshold wearing a blindfold. A voice announced, "Behold, the untold story of the marigold."

The cold room smelled the opposite (different) of mold. The speaker told us how marigolds can treat our skin. It may even cure the common cold.

A bold man sold me a folded packet (container) of marigold seeds for one gold coin.

97 old Advanced

"The Untold Story of a Marigold"

1) In the beginning of the story, what covered the person's eyes? _____

2) How do you think the room smelled? Use the first line in paragraph two for a clue.

3) What can a marigold do? _____

4) How much did the seeds cost? _____

5) Please underline all the nouns once, the verbs twice and circle every adjective.