"It Was Dark in the Park"

A monarch from Denmark decided to embark on a tour of world parks. He saw animals such as aardvarks and sharks.

Suddenly, a voiced emerged, "Hark, who goes there?" It was dark and the man from Denmark was scared. He struck a match, and it made a spark. He recognized the man. It was his childhood friend, Clarke.

Clarke remarked, "What are you doing here?" The monarch from Denmark spoke, "I am on vacation visiting landmarks. Want to join me to see skylarks in Bismarck (North Dakota)?"
