"Are You an Expert?"

On my phone was an alert, "We will pay top dollar for an expert in a covert assignment." I set my yogurt down and replied, "Allow me to assert myself. I will divert my plans as I am the man to exert energy for the task at hand."

I buttoned my shirt and followed the directions. I walked down a dirt road towards a building in a desert.

My job was a taste tester. Which dessert do I like best?

My happiness was overt!
