"Beware of the Giant Hare"

A sign on the box warned (tell someone beforehand), "Please beware of the giant hare. It will give you nightmares!"

I am unaware of something so rare. Being curious (want to know) and a little scared, I decided to investigate (research) on a dare.

I opened the box. There it was beneath silverware and a book by Voltaire (18th century French writer). A yearbook from the 1980s with a shiny glare. I couldn't help but stare; everyone had giant hair!

Rather than share this frightening book, I closed the box and changed the spelling to "h-a-i-r."

Tonight, I will have nightmares!
