

#2 at Advanced

"An Acrobat on the Patio"

Pat was a copycat. He will imitate anything you do. To combat this bad habit, I called my friend Nat the Acrobat. He came over after a two-minute chat.

On the patio, Nat did a backflip in front of Pat without a mat. Pat remarked, "That is easy!" Pat tried to imitate Nat. He fell flat on his face, splat. * Next, Nat hung upside down like a bat. Pat sat in a chair and pulled his hat over his face.

I think Pat will no longer be a copycat thanks to Nat the Acrobat.

Splat- a sound or a piece of wood in the back of a chair.*

#2 at comprehension "An Acrobat on the Patio"

1) How long did Nat and Pat chat on the phone? _____

2) What did Nat do in front of Pat?

3) What did Pat pull over his face?

4) What did Pat learn?

5) Please underline all the nouns once, the verbs twice and circle every adjective.